

August 14, 2009

BOE Welcomes New Administrators

Members of the Newton County Board of Education recently hosted a reception to welcome 20 new administrators, who are either new to the system or new to their position due to promotion. According to Newton County School Superintendent, Dr. Steve Whatley, 17 of the 20 were promoted from within the district.

Standing are: (l-r) Jeff Cher, Assistant Principal, Eastside High School; James Woodard, Director of CTAE; James Peek, Principal, Veterans Memorial Middle School; Courtney Manning, Assistant Principal, Newton High School; Mary Roach, Assistant Principal, Veterans Memorial Middle School; Eric Taylor, Assistant Principal, Veterans Memorial Middle School; Alan Satterfield, Principal, Middle Ridge Elementary School; Dr. Patrick Carter, Assistant Principal, Live Oak Elementary; Dennis Roddenberry, Principal, Eastside High School. Seated are: (l-r) Keisa Taylor, Assistant Principal, Palmer-Stone Elementary School; Dr. Kim Coady, Principal, East Newton Elementary School; Nyree Sanders, Director of Human Resources; Naomi Cobb, Director of Professional Learning; Dr. Jill Adams, Principal, Clements Theme School; Teresa Sauls, Assistant Principal, Clements Theme School; and Dr. LaQuanda Brown, Principal, Alcovy High School. (Not Pictured: Dr. Ruth Anne Smith, Principal, Fairview Theme School; Victor Lee, Principal, Liberty Middle School; Karen Gibbs, Assistant Principal, Liberty Middle School; Dr. Carl Skinner, Director of Testing.)

